

Class of 2007

Panel Luncheon

“The Freshman Experience”
Thursday, January 3rd
12:30—1:30
Budagher Hall, Bosque School

This Alumni Activity is limited to graduates from the Class of 2007. Given your most immediate experience navigating the college application process and combined with your fresh perspective on adjustment into college life, Bosque Seniors want to hear from you. Selected panelists will field pre-submitted questions from seniors, as well as share personal stories, struggles and successes from their first semester away at college.

Seats on the Panel are selective and limited. Interested candidates should submit an email of interest with a brief statement on what you feel you will add to the discussion.

Emails may be sent to the following:
